

Sermon Questions
Numbers 20:1-13

1. Why do you think that Moses struck the rock verses speaking to it as God commanded?
2. What was the consequence for Moses and Aaron?
3. Could Moses have shown his frustration with the people in a different way? Would it have still made God angry
4. How did Moses' and Aaron's attitude convey a misrepresentation of God's action towards the people?
5. Have you ever had a situation where you lost your love for someone because of their attitude or behavior? Why would you lose your love for that person?
6. Have you ever gotten angry with someone because they did not live up to your expectations? What was their response back?
7. Has there been a time when you found that ministry was more important than people?
8. Have you ever gotten angry with someone because ministry was not going the way you desired it to go?